

Quality Registers, Grilles and Diffusers Since 1947

Shoemaker Manufacturing Company has been manufacturing the highest quality registers, grilles and diffusers for more than 60 years – since 1947.

While most GRD manufacturers have been bought out and consolidated over time, Shoemaker is proud to be one of the last major, privately owned manufacturers of its kind.

Delivering Quality Products

The Shoemaker name is well respected and highly recognized in both the residential and commercial HVAC marketplace for the high quality products and outstanding customer service levels the company provides.

Celebrating a Proud History

The proprietors actively participate in the business, leading a management team who assume a personal responsibility for the design and distribution of the Shoemaker product line throughout the United States.

Providing Outstanding Service

We look forward to serving you.
